INDEX
1944
The Southern Frontier

Published by
Southern Regional Council, Inc.
63 Auburn Avenue, N. E.
Atlanta 3, Georgia

AGRICULTURE

January:
A Magna Charta for Southern Agriculture
The "Sharecroppers" Country

COMMISSION ON INTERRACIAL COOPERATION

February:
The Curtain Drops on the Old Order
Dr. Ashby Jones, Pioneer
Interracial Commission An Experiment in Racial Relations, by Dr. Ashby Jones

EDUCATION

January:
"Comparative Costs" Reveal Racial Discrimination in Schools
"In the Midst of Trouble" We Can Be Fair

February:
Will Missouri University Admit Negro Students?

September:
Equalization of Teachers' Salaries in North Carolina, by N. C. Newbold

EMPLOYMENT

May:
The FEPC and Negro Manpower

August:
What Can Be Done About Domestic Employment? by Grace Towns Hamilton

October:
Labor for Southern Textile Mills

November:
The Cotton Textile Workers

LAW ENFORCEMENT

January:
What Is the Objection to Negro Policemen?

February:
Negro Policemen Serve Tampa, Fla.

October:
Law and Order in the South
The Law—Editorial

MISCELLANEOUS

August:
Differential Freight Rates and the South

October:
Building a Post War South

November:
Easing Our Interracial Tensions, by Emeric Kurtagh

POLITICS (See also White Primary)

April:
The Supreme Court and the South

June:
The Political Scene: Confusion and Crisis
Texas Rebellion—Editorial

July:
Party Platforms and the Negro

August:
The Progressive Democratic Party in South Carolina, by John H. McCray

PRESS AND LETTER COMMENTS

January:
Why I Fight?

April:
In the Mail

May:
A Southern Business Man's Opinion

June:
What the People Say: Letters to Press

August:
A Letter from California
Quotes from the Press

September:
On Racial Discrimination
Southern Comment

October:
A Southerner Speaks, by E. M. Martin

November:
From the Press

RACE RELATIONS

January:
Negroes Fight on Four Major Fronts
North Carolina Is In—But Not of the South
White Newspaper in Editorial Arouses Negro Citizens
Year's Record of Lynchings, Attempted Lynchings

February:
Another Domestic Servant Rumor Floats Around
Alabama Negro Baptists Pledge Support in Food Program
South Carolina Editor Calls Southern Senator's Bluff
Virginius Dabney Makes Suggestions to Editors on Handling Race News
You Never Make a Friend by Using a Blackjack

March:
It does Happen Here
Opinion

April:
It Is For Us the Bell Tolls
News and Notes

May:
American Council on Race Relations
In Kentucky
An Institute of Race Relations

July:
An Anthropologist's View
Evidence of Southern Progress—Editorial
Here and There in the South
I Never Knowed, by Margaret Fisher
Mr. Pilcher's Gift
Science and the American Race Problem, by Guy B. Johnson

August:
Editorial Comment
Notes

September:
Rumor—Editorial
Here and There in the South

October:
Races Exhibit

November:
Edward L. Bernays Award
Freedom: Promise or Fact, by Eleanor Roosevelt
Some Questions and Answers
The Urban League Resolves

RELIGION

April:
The YWCA and Interracial Practices

May:
Southern Baptists and the Negro

September:
The American Missionary Association Institute of Race Relations, by Charles S. Johnson

October:
Churchmen Act on Race

November:
A Young People's Institute

REVIEWS AND SUGGESTED READING

January:
Race and Rumors of Race

March:
An American Dilemma
Books of the Month

August:
You Should Read

October:
Book Review—Freedom Road
For Your Reading

SOUTHERN REGIONAL COUNCIL

March:
The Southern Regional Council
The Southern Regional Council—Editorial

May:
SRC Board of Directors Meets
Miss Margaret Fisher Joins the Staff

June:
Standing Committees of the SRC

November:
Miss Fisher Resigns

December:
Report of the Council Meeting
The Council—Editorial

THE WAR

January:
Dunn Negroes Make Good
Liberty Ships Honor Liberty Leaders—Editorial

February:
Another Service Is Opened to Negroes—Paratrooping
Negro Fighter Pilots Shoot Down Eight Nazi Planes

December:
Negro Servicemen

WHITE PRIMARY—(See also Politics)

March:
South Carolina Incident

April:
Georgia Committee Resolution on White Primary
Some Voting Restrictions in the Southern States
Voting Status of Negroes in Virginia
White Primary—Editorial

May:
An Alabama Statement
Negro Suffrage—Editorial

June:
A Challenge to the Democratic Party
Plea of the Atlanta Negro Citizens Committee

October:
Primary Day in Georgia—Poem